

SICK LEAVE BLUES
Rev 09/14

Adegbalola 09/1995

There's sick leave for my headache
Sick leave for my cold
But what I need the most
Is sick leave for my soul

Chorus:     While I'm dealing with a healin'
                  Yes, I'm dealing with a healin'
                  I'm dealing with a healin'
                  Please don't dock my pay

I can't walk or talk
Lord I'm barely breathing
But I got to go to work
There's no sick leave for grieving

Bridge:     My job is on the cutting edge
                  I always do my best
                  My heart is on the bleeding edge
                  I got to take a rest
                  Doctor finds a hangnail
                  And sick leave is okay
                  Now I'm down with the blues
                  And it's leave without pay

Never been so sick
In all of my life
No chills, no fever
Just heartbreak and strife

It's bad enough I'm hurting
This pain, it ain't no joke
But I can't get no sick leave
So I'm slowly going broke

Outro:     • THIS IS A HEART ATTACK ~~ MY HEART HAS BEEN ATTACKED
                  • THIS IS A HEART ATTACK ~~ AND MY HEART'S BEEN BROKEN
                  • IT'S BROKEN INTO LITTLE PIECES ~~ IT'S BEEN STOMPED
                  • CAN'T YOU SEE I'M HURTING ~~ I'M HURTING SOOOOO BAD
                  • I NEED A TRANSPLANT
                  • OBAMACARE DON'T COVER THIS SHIT
