DIRTY SHEETS

Adegbalola

Dirty Sheets, Rev #2 (08/90) I Can't Read, Rev #2 (01/11)

Α

Chorus Dirty sheets, dirty sheets

Ε

What's a poor girl supposed to do?

7 A

I've got those sick and tired of changing

Em

Somebody else's dirty sheet blues

Em

Found a job when I was beat Til i got back on my feet Seems I'll spend my entire life Changing dirty sheets / Em7

Chorus

Work my fingers to the bone Can't get any kind of loan I work 40 plus hours a week And still can't afford a home

Chorus

When I try to find a better job
They say "use the computer to apply"
I know I can do the job
But how can I ever quality

Chorus with these lyrics: But I can't read, I can't read

What's a poor girl supposed to do?

I'm so ashamed of myself Lord knows I need some help

To lose these blues, these dirty sheet blues

(Cuz I be) Dealin' with the filth and grime I be dealin' with the slime What I want to know is Where to blame the crime

Chorus

They say the globe is shrinking And the dollar's shrinking too But right here in Amerikka A working person can be homeless too

Chorus -- lyrics change: Dirty sheets, dirty sheets

My life is slavery

My only home for freedom

Is to hit the lottery
