

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ME

Adegbalola 11/98; Rev 5/2000

I invited everybody to my birthday party
That I had last night
Lord knows I must not be living right
(Turned out) It was a surprise party
(Cuz) Nobody came but me

(So then) I gave myself some presents
Some toys and some tricks
I could not give myself those happy birthday licks
Happy birthday
Happy birthday to me

I toasted to my health
And I toasted to my wealth
Lit the candles on the cake that I made for myself
Happy birthday to me

Bridge: 'Fore I blew out the candles
I closed my eyes and wished
That no one would be alone like me--
So completely dissed
So I wiped away my tears
Tried to be braver
Took matters into my own hands
And gave myself a party favor

Not a card, not a call
It was a private celebration
So I'll drink to another year
And have another good vibration
Happy birthday, happy birthday
Happy birthday to me
