

#7 PROTEST: Kaepernicked

I look at this baby boy
He's just a baby boy to me
And I want to hold him
And console him, and I want to thank him
For taking a knee for me

If I could meet him now
I'd have to touch his hair
I would pat him on his back, deep in his eyes I would stare
Oh say can you see
You fell on the sword and woke me

Bridge: : He did not raise his fist
 In a mean, mean way
 He got down on his knee
 A humble way to pray
 With world-wide television
 He prayed to call attention
 To the brutality and injustice
 Ffor black people every day

A sacrifice like the "Greatest"
With integrity
They twisted and "Trumped" his intent
His lifetime of work was spent
Oh say can you see
You're winning the game for me

Ooooooh, if I could meet him now
In my hands, I'd hold his face
I'd hug him deep, mirror his eyes
And I'd have to say
Oh say can you see
You are my new
Muhammad Ali

Outro: You woke me
 I been Kaepernicked!
 Thank you, Colin
