

STEP PARENT BLUES

Moe & Adegbalola 12/07

Rev #6

I been steppin. . . yeah
I been steppin. . .

I been steppin to the side
And steppin to the back
Steppin on eggshells
And taking too much flack
The law won't recognize me
And you pay me no respect
I know you want me to step away
And step back
What am I supposed to do?
I got those step parent blues

We both love your mother
Oh please don't make her choose
I'm at the crossroads
No one needs to lose
Your Mom is scared you'll leave her
She can't step to my defense
It's up to me and you, kid
Things have gotten tense
What am I supposed to do?
I got those step parent blues

Bridge: There's no loving her
 Without loving you
 That's just the way it is
 It's true
 We can work it out
 You know I've paid my dues
 But I need your help
 To end my step parent blues

So let me step forward
I'll take the chance to say
Your Mom will always put you first
And for me, that is okay
I'll take you to the doctor's
Even join the PTA
I'll love you as my own
Don't make me step away
What am I supposed to do?

I got those step parent blues
