

WINONA

Adegbalola 07/2022

Winona, Winona
How could I ever forget you
You did things to me
That have never been done before

Winona, Oh Winona
So vicious how you broke my heart
Ripped it out and stomped it
But I kept my spirit in the dark

Winona, yes Winona
In my sleep, sometimes sometimes I call your name
It's you, Winona
Who tried to drive me insane

People now saying they didn't do it
But what I DO know
Is that they DO know exactly who did
Exactly who all did it and exactly what all's been done
Every Winona has to pay, every Winona is the one

To pay for lying, pay for stealing
Pay for the dying, pay for the beating
Oh so many, so many Winonas
Every, every single Winona is the one

I forgive you, Winona
But I can't, I can't forget
I won't judge you, Winona
You have to pay God's debt
