

LET GO, LET GOD

Adegbalola 8/98

I need to let go, I need to let God
Lift my burdens, ease my pain
I need to let go, I need to let God
Make me whole again

I am tired, but I cannot sleep
I am hungry, but I cannot eat
I am looking, but I cannot see
I am talking, but I cannot speak

Oh God won't give you
No more than you can bear
Hard luck and trouble
I've had my share
I need to let go
I need to let God
Make me whole again

Oh I am praying, but I cannot kneel
I am touching, but I cannot feel
I am listening, but I cannot hear
I am hurting, but I cannot shed a tear

Oh yes, I'm numb
I'm numb and cold
Please take it off me
Save my soul
I need to let go
I need to let God
Make me whole again

I am tired — I am tired
But I cannot sleep — but I cannot sleep
I am hungry — I am hungry
But I cannot eat — but I cannot eat
I am looking — I am looking
But I cannot see — but I cannot see
I am talking, but I cannot speak

Oh God won't give you — God won't give you
No more than you can bear — no more than you can bear
Hard luck and trouble — hard luck and trouble
I've had my share — had my share

I need to let go — I need to let go
I need to let God — I need to let God
Make me whole again

I'm praying — I am praying
But I cannot kneel — but I cannot kneel
I'm touching — I am touching
But I cannot feel — but I cannot feel
I'm listening — I am listening
But I cannot hear — but I cannot hear
I am hurting, but I cannot shed a tear

Oh yes, I'm numb — yes, I'm numb
I'm numb and I'm, cold — I'm numb and I'm cold
Please take it off me — take it off me
Save my soul — save my soul
I need to let go — I need to let go
I need to let God — I need to let God
Make me whole again

Make me whole again
